Lesson N°2

Sequence 3: “Me and the scientific world “Lesson : I listen and do (1) “Dr Abderrahim Bourouis”

Today we are going to talk about a famous Algerian scientist and researcher “Dr Abderrahim Bourouis”.

- Listen to the audio script <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Gt0x7uON1tQ> or read the written version then do the tasks .

Script :

Dr Abderrahim Bourouis was born in Tlemcen. He is 29 years old. His father is a mechanic and his mother is a housewife.

Dr Abderrahim Bourouis went to primary, middle and high schools in Tlemcen, an old historic town in the west of Algeria. After that, he went to Abou Beker Belkaid University in Tlemcen, where he did his undergraduate and postgraduate studies, and got his Bachelor’s and Master’s degrees of Engineering (BE and ME) in 2009. He also holds a PhD in Telecommunication from the same university (2014).

Dr Bourouis is a researcher and engineer at Algerie Telecom, which he joined in 2014. One of his inventions was a smart shirt for patients suffering from Alzheimer’s disease. This shirt is equipped with microelectronic devices, which prevent patients from getting lost. This invention won Dr Bourouis the Arab Youth Creativity Award in 2013 .
